This week at BPA has been jam packed with Easter activities. Wednesday saw the Easter Bonnet Parade for Early Years and KS1 and the Eggs-hibition for KS2. I know our PE coach Mr Toulson found it incredibly difficult to pick winners. Many thanks to all the children who entered the competitions and to the parents for their support. I was incredibly fortunate on Thursday to watch Year 5s Easter Assembly. It was amazing to be able to welcome the parents back into the school building again - it's been a long time coming. The performance was superb and I was very proud of their efforts.

Finally, as another half term draws to a close, I would just like to take this opportunity to thank the children for the hard work and dedication to their learning, the parents once again for your invaluable support and finally to all of the staff at BPA who work tirelessly each and every day to ensure the children are getting the very best in every aspect. I wish everyone a happy, relaxing and enjoyable Easter holiday.

Take a look at what has been happening this week at BPA?

Year 6 have produced some truly wonderful poetry about Autism - linked in to this being World Autism Awareness Week. Launchpad have been celebrating their super powers - being autistic is celebrated and seen as something amazing.

This week we have been celebrating Autism Awareness Week. The children have been learning about what Autism is and other neurodiversity diagnosis that many children have in our school. We believe that it's not just awareness but acceptance that is key for supporting all our children in school. I feel that our pupils promote this acceptance and belief which, has become part of our ethos!

This week in Year 5 we have had the opportunity to perform our Easter performance to the whole school and to parents. We retold the easter story and sang some easter related songs too. A big well done to all children that took part and putting 110% effort into the performance! Some children had to fill in at the last minute for some parts but still did amazingly well! You should all be so proud of yourselves. If you came along to watch, we hope you enjoyed it.

Today we were extremely lucky to have a production of The Hobbit for the whole school. The children joined in with all the songs, behaved impeccably and had a magnificent time. What a wonderful end to a tremendous half term!

There were some fantastic entries to our KS1 Easter bonnet competition and KS2 Eggshibition . It was very difficult to chose the winners.
