A huge thank you to all of our parents for your attendance and support at this week's Parents' Evening. It was great to see so many parents turning up over the 2 nights; taking a real keen interest in your child's education. Your support at these events is very much appreciated as it highlights just how important it is for us to work together, ensuring the best possible outcomes and progress for the pupils. A thank you also to the staff team for all of the hard work and preparation they put into making this event run so smoothly. I wish everyone a happy and restful weekend and we look forward to welcoming the children back into school on Monday.
