

Newsletter 20/10/2023

This week, I would like to dedicate my section of the Newsletter to our amazing Year 3/4 team. On Wednesday morning, we were treated to their Harvest Assembly in the school hall. What an incredible job they did! They packed so much into the assembly: singing, dancing, sharing of their Curriculum learning this half term, ukulele playing and so much. It was a joy to witness the culmination of all of their hard work and efforts. A huge well done to the pupils who did such a magnificent job and a huge thank you to all of our staff in the Year 3/4 team for all of their time and efforts in preparing such a wonderful treat for everyone. It was also great to see such impressive attendance from parents as well which was very much appreciated by all staff and pupils.

This week at BPA...

This week in the Early Years RP we have been learning about people who help us. We've had lots of fun being fire fighters, doctors and the police.

Attendance: what's acceptable, what's not?

Of course, there will be times when your child has to miss school for a very good reason. If your child needs time off you must ask us for permission as far in advance as possible.

When is it OK for my child to stay away from school?

Illness Please telephone school as soon as possible on the first day of illness and every day your child is off Ill.

Medical Try to arrange medical appointments during school holiday, at weekends or after school hours.
Naturally. There will be times when this isn't possible, but try to give us
as much advance warning as Bereavement –

Let us know as soon as possible if someone in your family dies – we will want to make sure that staff and pupils act sensitively with your child on their return.

Religious festivals – ask us well in advance for time off for religious reason possible.

Holidays — Don't expect us to automatically agree to give time off for holidays in term time. Exceptional circumstance forms are available from the school office. Holidays not approved by the Executive Principal and will be marked as family
Holiday Not Agreed code G.

Vour child should attend school, EVEN if it's their birthday. Depriving your child of the chance to celebrate their birthday with their friends is not a "treat"!

Shopping – or any other activity for which there is no serious reason for your child to be away from school.

Truancy –
Missing school is not acceptable and may well have serious consequences for both you and your child. Remember, parents can be fined or prosecuted even if they did not know that their child had missed school.

LATENESS

- If your child is late for school and arriving after registration time, they MUST be accompanied to school by a named adult. Children should not be coming into school by themselves once the school day has started.

Did you know?

Every day 50,000 children of all ages miss school without permission. Don't let your child waste their potential too.
